

Exhibitions Research Assistant - Masterpieces: Chinese painting from the 8th to 19th centuries

Victoria & Albert Museum

The exhibition will be held at the V&A from early October to late December 2013 and will feature around 100 paintings drawn from Britain, Europe, Japan, Main land China, Taiwan and the US. There will also be a major scholarly catalogue, an international conference and other events accompanying the exhibition.

A practically minded scholar is required to assist in the development and delivery of the exhibition and publication, in particular to build and maintain good relations with lenders and other stakeholders in China and Japan.

You will have Advanced written and spoken Chinese, or have Chinese as first language with a high standard of English. You will also have proven ability to translate academic texts from Chinese to English and vice versa.

Closing date for Applications: Midnight Wednesday 15th February 2012

Interviews are likely to be held on 22nd February 2012

Location:	South Kensington
Category:	Research
Duration:
Type of Contract:	Contract
Hours:	Full Time
added: Jan. 25, 2012	deadline: Feb. 15, 2012

More information: <http://www.peoplebank.com/pbank/owa/pbk24w12.main?p=digdnUoklljbkdkmjccljijeifgknZobidnSo3aKn3o3aKnaockgjkdn>