

Natural History Museum

The Natural History Museum is one of the world's leading museums, internationally recognised for its dual role as a centre of excellence in scientific research and as a leader in the presentation of natural history through exhibitions, public programmes, publications and the web.

The OPAL Communications Officer works at the Natural History Museum with project partners to develop media and marketing campaigns in support of major national projects and supports regional activity, taking advantage of the opportunities presented by specific projects to raise OPAL's profile.
