

National Portrait Gallery

The National Portrait Gallery houses a unique collection of all forms of portraiture of the people who have made or who are currently contributing to British history and culture. With more than 2 million visitors each year, the Gallery is one of the country's most important and popular galleries.

Learning is central to the work of the National Portrait Gallery. The Learning department is responsible for working with new and existing audiences to increase opportunities for learning and participation with the Gallery's collection.

Young People's Programmes Assistant
Pro rata £20,637 per annum, part-time (3 days per week)
1 year, fixed-term contract

You will be responsible for programme and administrative support for a range of activities associated with the Young People's Programme for 14-21 year olds and administrative support for the Family Programme on-site at the Gallery.

Applicants will be educated to Degree level, possess experience of working with young people aged 14-21 in cultural institutions, and will have excellent administrative, organisational and time management skills and a strong understanding of the Gallery and Museum Learning sector.

Full details of this and all other employment opportunities at the Gallery can be viewed at our website www.npg.org.uk/jobs or requested by e-mailing: personnel@npg.org.uk. Closing date for returned applications is 9.00am on Friday 25 May 2012. We are expecting to hold interviews on Thursday 7 June 2012.

The Gallery is committed to equality and is a member of the Employers' Forum on Disability, Race for Opportunity and the Equality Exchange.

Location:	London
Category:	Education
Duration:
Type of Contract:	Contract
Hours:	Part Time
added: May 15, 2012	deadline: May 25, 2012

More information: <http://www.npg.org.uk/about/jobs>