- On rotation, serving in the ship's shop, at the entrance desk, as a meet and greeter and patrolling the decks. (Meet and Greeters encourage viewers to become visitors, promote the gift aid scheme, facilitate the movement of visitors around the ship and thank customers for their visit).
- Assist with the logging and welcoming of tour groups and educational groups, paying attention to any specific needs as advised by the Duty Managers.
- Be fully aware of, and adhere to, the contents of the Cutty Sark Visitor Care Handbook.
- Other duties as may be required, including manning the ship for evening functions.

Retail Duties

- To maximize retail sales via excellent product knowledge and customer service.
- To re-stock shop and assist in the stock rooms as required by Duty Managers and ensure key product lines remain stocked throughout the day.
- Work in accordance with the Cutty Sark's Standard Operating Procedures.
- Cash handling, including monies taken in the shop and at the entrance desk and adhering to cash and financial procedures as required by the Duty Managers.
- Bank money taken during the previous day.
- Mail delivery to and from the office.
- Set up areas of the ship for functions, events, workshops, seminars etc. and return to their usual format after the completion of the event.
- Porterage of goods, materials and furniture within the ship.
- Be aware of and comply with Cutty Sark's Health and Safety Policy and act as required in the event of an emergency situation, including assisting in the evacuation of the ship in the event of a fire, security alert or other emergency in accordance with our current emergency procedures.
- Patrol the ship as required, monitoring the safety and security of visitors, exhibits and the ship.
- To ensure that public areas of the ship are clear of visitors at closing time, that no items are left and that all areas are checked for any potential hazard to the ship, e.g. running taps, suspicious packages etc, and any found are reported to the Duty Manager.
- Demonstrate at all times the highest level of professionalism, dedication and confidentiality.

General Duties:

- Participate in appropriate development and training activities when required.
- Undertake such other duties, training and/or hours of work as may be reasonably required and which are consistent with the general level of responsibility of this job.

Skills and Experience:

Essential:

- Experience of working with the public, with excellent communication skills
- Experience of admission and retail till systems
