

Individual Giving Manager, Catalyst & Appeals

National Portrait Gallery

The National Portrait Gallery houses a unique collection of all forms of portraiture of the people who have made or who are currently contributing to British history and culture. With more than 2 million visitors each year, the Gallery is one of the country's most important and popular galleries.

Individual Giving Manager, Catalyst & Appeals

Fixed term until June 2016

Full-time, 40 hours per week

Circa £30,000 per annum

Individual Giving Manager, Catalyst & Appeals is a fundraising post within the Gallery's Development department. The post holder will manage the Gallery's Catalyst campaign, which aims to raise £1m in matched funds primarily from individual supporters by June 2016 as well as helping to coordinate other appeals as they arise. Reporting to the Head of Major Donors & Appeals and working closely with Individual Giving colleagues, the post holder will ensure that the campaign reaches its targets across a range of methods including online giving; on site giving; text donations and major gifts.
