

Curator, 20th and 21st Century Fashion

Victoria & Albert Museum

The V&A is the world's leading museum of art and design. We enrich people's lives by promoting the practice of design and increasing knowledge, understanding and enjoyment of the designed world.

Fashion is one of the most high-profile and dynamic areas of the V&A's work. The Fashion Curator will form part of the team responsible for the care, research, documentation, display and interpretation of the collections of the Furniture, Textiles and Fashion Department. The successful candidate will have a sound general knowledge of textile and fashion history and demonstrate specific expertise in 20th and 21st century fashion. The post requires commitment to scholarship and to the full range of curatorial work.

Please note that this is a fixed term contract, and is offered for a period of up to 23 months, to end 30 June 2015.

Closing date for applications Monday 27 May 2013

Interviews will take place the week of 10 June 2013
